Luigi's mansion 3 third floor guide

A little further on, pick up the key from the ground and turn around (picture6). picture12 picture13 picture14 Once this operation is completed, go back to the upper floor and send Gooigi to the shop on the right (picture15). picture4 picture5 picture6 You will now have to approach the shop on the left (picture7). View guide indexYou continue your exploration of the hotel and now reach the floor of the Hotel Shops, guarded by an angry security guard, picture24 Now that you have all the plumber's exorcist equipment in Luigi's Mansion 3, it's time to resume a more 'organized' exploration of the hotel's floors. After the RIP suite and the Great Hall, this time the elevator takes us to the shops of the complex, picture23 Boss - Kruller To defeat this ghost, send Gooigi through the gate and approach him to quickly vacuum his sunglasses. Once you have the key in your possession, go out and try to go back upstairs, you will then be attacked by a new ghost (picture21). To defeat this enemy, blind him and then pass behind his back so you can suck him up before throwing him to the ground (picture22). Then switch to Luigi and do the same with him on the left clover. Once you have it in your possession, go all the way west of this floor to arrive in front of the corresponding shop: to enter, take Gooigi out and pass him the electric shutter thanks to his soft trick capacities, picture18 picture19 Once this is done, enter the shop with Gooigi and reveal the cash register with the Dark-Light (picture20). Here again, little jokers will prick it under your nose and go behind the stalls. A little flash on the green signal that appeared behind the box and zou, a pretty pile of gold coins, but also a pretty pile of little ghosts, ready to be swallowed by Gooigi's simili-ectoblast, picture1 picture2 picture3 Once you have done this, go back to the entrance and open the door on the left (picture4), then climb the escalator and continue towards the corridor on the right (picture5). A big troublemaker, however, will block you at the top level, a new type of ghost all red and rather masturbating. Once the threat has been removed, it is now possible to enter the last room on the first floor for a small family boss fight, picture20 picture21 picture22 After your victory over the ghost, go to the upper floor and unlock the door of the security post, you will then have to fight the boss of that floor (picture23). Find out how to cross this floor safely in this section of our Luigi's Mansion 3 Guide. Here, use the Dark-Light to reveal the cash register, and then unlock it with the key (picture16). Once this is done, start vacuuming the coins, and then eliminate the ghosts to obtain the third key (pictures13-14). Inside the store, activate the cash register delivering the heart key, directly caught by a small troop of basic ghosts, which will allow you to discover that the fights with Gooigi are exactly the same as for his fellow flesh and blood, with the difference that he has 3 times less life. Once at the hairdresser's, make the cash register appear with the révéloscope, just to the right of the sink: you have the star key and access to the guard's office, picture15 picture16 picture17 To defeat these enemies, first vacuum their sunglasses and then flash them to blind them (picture18). Nothing very complicated to get through the security guard, you'll see. Well, now the clover shop, problem, the metal shutter is well closed, impossible for Gooigi to pass. To do this, take Gooigi out and have him vacuum the bronze clover to the right of the chisel, on the front of the shop. After that, go down to the lower level, and send Gooigi to the shop on the right (picture11). Repeat this operation carefully, while avoiding the shots of his water gun to win the fight. As you enter the main room, you will attract the attention of the Security Guard, who will hasten to flee like a rain behind a door marked with a star. Both must turn at the same time to move the scissors in the center and thus unlock the flap. Here, the cash register will disappear right under your big sticky nose: play the révéloscope and suck the balls to make it reappear, congratulations, here is the key to the last shop. From there, activate Gooigi and send him to the other side of the security grille, then open the cash register to find a second key (pictures8-9). To defeat them, simply suck in their pair and then dazzle them like the others: you should have no problem putting them out of harm's way, just make sure they have their eyes within reach of the lamp. As he escapes, the ghost widower drops a "tile" key that you will obviously have to look for to continue your progress quietly. The only slightly dangerous attack of the man is a jet of water from his gun, which will not change much in the end, since even if Gooigi melts, you just have to pull him out just behind to send him back into battle. Once the security guard has been eliminated, pick up the button and go back to the elevator, you can then reach the mezzanine on the second floor (picture24). At the end of this confrontation, return to the ground floor and approach the hairdresser's shop, picture10 picture11 Inside, open the cash register and flash the green button to open a secret compartment (picture12). Here, vacuum the first clover with Luigi and the second with Gooigi to open the door (picture19). To beat him, stay away, wait for him to charge you, after which he will fall to the ground. To begin, hide Luigi in a corner of the room, then take Gooigi out, who will pass the metal shutter that separates you from the notable ghost. Be careful, this will attract a new type of enemy, equipped with glasses. Once this is done, blind him before sucking him in, and then throw him to the ground, like all other ghosts. It is at this moment that a new type of ghost will appear in the room (picture17). Floor 3, shops: Security Guard New boss, new strategy. When you arrive in the shopping area, go to the men's room; there, throw a suction cup at the right door and pull the rope to find a key (pictures1-2-3). Suck in the boss, get the second floor button. Boom, recovery of the spade key, all you have to do is go up the stairs to access the store on the right of this landing. Take advantage of this moment to dazzle him, then pass through his back to suck him in. For the heart room, it's at the bottom right of the main room: the same principle, it's Gooigi who sticks to it and will play the cash register, this time for the spade key. When the latter is nearby, suck in his glasses, flash him, then suck in. To start, go to the men's room: pull a suction cup on the right door to shatter it and retrieve the first key of the floor, giving access to the different shops, picture7 picture8 picture9 At that moment, several ghosts will appear in the room, so eliminate them before joining Luigi (picture10).
